rabbittransit Recieves Donation from Local Veterans in Eters

York, PA – The Central Pennsylvania Transportation Authority, which does business as rabbittransit, accepted a generous donation from local veterans on Monday, October 2, 2017. The donation was made from the James A. Danner, VFW Post 537 in Eters, PA.

The $1,000 donation was made to rabbittransit to support veterans medical transportation in York County. “This is another example of the local VFW supporting area veterans,” said Charles Yost, Post Chaplain.

Since the launch of its YORKVET transportation shuttle in partnership with the York County Depart of Veterans Affairs, rabbittransit has begun to receive donations within the community. The donations will support local veterans to secure transportation to local Community Based Outreach Clinics in York and Camp Hill, as well as, transportation to the VA hospital in Lebanon, PA.

The YORKVET shuttle operates every weekday departing York at 6:30AM and 9:30AM. For those interested in learning more about Veterans Transportation options, please call 1-800-632-9063, email info@rabbittransit.org or visit www.rabbittransit.org.

rabbittransit, a regional public transportation provider, offers a variety of transportation services to the residents of Adams, Columbia, Cumberland, Franklin, Montour, Northumberland, Perry, Snyder, Union and York Counties. More than 8,000 people depend on rabbittransit each day to get to work, medical facilities, school and other life-sustaining activities. rabbittransit is dedicated to helping all residents in the region get to where they want to go.
